In-Person Paper Development Workshop on Strategic Innovation

Amsterdam Digital Transformation Lab

29 April 2022, 8:30 am – 12:00 pm – REC MS.01

Led By:

Tobias Kretschmer (School of Management, LMU Munich)

Saeed Khanagha (School of Business and Economics, VU Amsterdam)

Henk Volberda (Amsterdam Business School, University of Amsterdam)

Hakan Özalp (Amsterdam Business School, University of Amsterdam)

Purpose

In this workshop, we aim to help PhDs and early career researchers develop research ideas for later submission in top management journals. The research topics related to strategic management, strategic innovation, and strategic organization in the digital age are best suited for this workshop.

Format

Plenary and round table discussions.
Selected participants will be matched with a leader for roundtable discussions. To allow for interactive discussions and feedback between participants in a friendly environment, the number of participants will be limited to 20.

Application

If you are interested, please submit an extended abstract (between 4 and 6 pages, excluding references) of your proposal by 20 April 2022.

For application, please send your extended abstract to m.t.ramezanzadeh@uva.nl.
